

Title I-No Child Left Behind

Dear Parents:

As required by the No Child Left Behind law, parents of children who attend a Title I school are entitled to the following information regarding their child's classroom teachers and paraprofessional staff:

- Parents may request information regarding the professional qualifications of their child's classroom teachers(s) and paraprofessionals who may be providing services to their child.
- The information will reveal whether the teacher has met State qualifications and licensing criteria for the grade level and subject areas in which the teacher provides instruction.
- The information will also reveal whether the teacher is teaching under emergency or other provisional status.
- The baccalaureate degree major of the teacher and any other graduate certification or degree held by the teacher and the field of discipline of the certification or degree.
- Qualifications of paraprofessionals who are providing academic services to their child may also be requested.

If you wish to obtain the aforementioned information, please contact your child's building principal or the superintendent of schools.
