

COOPERATION OF SCHOOL PERSONNEL

Contact with parents by working together in PTA conferences and social gatherings provides school personnel opportunities for gaining friendly and intelligent cooperation from those most interested in schools, and for sampling public opinion. Principals and teachers are encouraged to assist parents in the PTA and to channel their energies toward programs mutually beneficial to the schools and the community.