

The Harpursville Central School District has not yet received the application for the American Rescue Plan, therefore we have not developed our spending plan yet. We will update this link once New York State makes the information available.